

Livestock Judging Contest
June 23, 2011 at 9:30 a.m.
University of Findlay Equestrian Farm

- All youth, 4-H and non 4-H members, may participate in this contest
- No pre-registration is required
- Youth do not need to be enrolled in livestock projects to participate
- Upon arrival, register at the registration table (may also register as a team)
- There will be six classes to judge: heifers, steers, gilts, market hogs, ewes, and market lambs
- Participants should bring a pencil and clipboard
- Some classes will require answering multiple choice questions, while others only require animals to be ranked
- Winners will be announced in 6 areas:
  - Jr. Individual (8-11)
  - Int. Individual (12-13)
  - Sr. Individual (14-18)
  - Jr. Teams (8-13)
  - Sr. Teams (14-18)
  - Out of County
- Contest should be completed by 11:30 (depending on number of participants)
- This is a fun contest! Come out and spend the morning with your 4-H Friends!!

Thank you to Dan Webb and the University of Findlay for providing livestock and the facility!